R*n 994 — South of everything @ Viney's Road, Oonah, set by Chunder (184), April 19th, 2009.

The pack: Speed Hump(349), Gonzo(162), Ringo(632), Dyke(64), Giggles(37), DT (95), Urang(181), Phay Wray(265), Dini(388).

It's a long way to Choveaux Road, with or without a sausage roll. A good thing the r*n wasn't being set from there. No, it was even further. To the arriving pack's astonishment there was an HHH sign on the road at the appropriate Viney's turn-off. Chunder is renowned for his lack of signs. Within 20 metres there was a fork in the road, with no signs...ah, that's more like it. Left fork was blocked by some token rocks, so right it was. Along a chunky gravel forestry road, to be confronted by hash cars returning from an extensive tour of the adjacent forestry coupe. (Urang: "we've been f*cking everywhere!"). A left turn and there was the Hare's truck, playfully hidden among the trees.

At ten to, a wankerphone call from the hare spurred Dini to declare herself poxy Trailmaster and call the pack on, as directed. Flour there was not, instead neat little handfuls of shredded paper, which when reconstructed proved to be un-abridged tome of "Beginners guide to legal running of a lottery or raffle". Trail led along the road, curving around and up a steep incline, where the FRB's stood rudely on a false trail marker until the rest of the pack arrived. Pr*cks! Mind, it was worth the slog just to see the beautifully constructed FT symbol immaculately laid out with erect cones of Pinus radiata studding the intersecting lines. I will never view Chunder in quite the same light again—I now suspect he has Goosenuttian tendencies.

Retracing to the foot of the hill, the pack found trail on the main gravel and meandered along until another forking check was encountered. This marker too was grossly over-neat. Dyke checked on right up the hill but Dini scored the true trail along the main drag again. A further neat-check kept the pack on the same road, gaining a fair altitude now.

At the next junction GonZo greeted the thirsty pack with a cask of best Tawny Plonk, and tales of where the Hare may be taking us next (insert expansive waving of green-clad arms in a broad westerly sweep). Care fell away as the Port level diminished and the jellied knees increased. On was called as the golden afternoon light threw insane shadows along the trail.

The Port was such good sh*t that Giggles thought she smelled something illegal in the air—but there was no sign of any smoke, no fenced plots, no dreadlocked hippies—maybe it was the smell of that last vestige of Teen Spirit from bygone Choveaux Road hashes lurking in the vicinity...

GonZo was concerned that Chunder may head back to collect her from wherever he had gone and instructed that he be called on the cellphone, but the slack message-bank secretart answered, and didn't give him the message until we were back at the on on. Fortunately this was of no consequence, as Chunder materialised by the truck at the next road junction. Soon we were herded on and back to the cars, where circle ensued in the light of the setting sun.

Poxy lip Speedy laid into Dyke, just in case it was he who was responsible for the "missing in action" Hash Bucket. He had also flippantly referred to a new species on the r*n - "female girls"- which assumes that he is familiar with the other type. The Hare and Hare-ess scored drinks, as did the travelling pack of Giggles, Dini, Ringo, Urang and Phay Wray departing for Nash Hash. DT drank for having a sparkly hat, Urang and Phay Wray for appearing in a tabloid without their hash gear. Giggles was awarded the Hashit jointly with Chunder, as the two of them were inseparable in the voting, even using the Hare-Squark system.

Rigged Raffle winners this week were Dyke and Speed Hump, both managing to produce their tickets within the prescribed 3 micro-second window of the Hawker's patience.

The on on removed to Giggles kitchen, where ordered-in hot fish'n'chips and sweeties fortified the hashers, along with a beverage or two or several.

ON ON Dini

An Oirish Story.

An Irishman goes to the Doctor with botty problems....

'Dactor, it's me ahrse. I'd loik ya ta teyhk a look, if ya woot'.

So the doctor gets him to drop his pants and takes a look.

'Incredible'he says, 'there is a £20 note lodged up here.'

Tentatively he eases the twenty out of the man's bottom, and then a 10 pound note appears.

'This is amazing!'exclaims the Doctor. "What do you want me to do?'

'Well fur gadness sake teyhk it out, man!'shrieks the patient.

The doctor pulls out the tenner and another twenty appears, and another and another and another, etc.....

Finally the last note comes out and no more appear.

'Ah Dactor, tank ya koindly, dat's moch batter. Just out of interest, how moch was in dare den?'

The Doctor counts the pile of cash and says '£1,990 exactly.'

'Ah, dat'd be roit,'" says the Irishman

'I knew I wasn't feeling two grand..'

A gentle reminder (with a Fubar) to those listed above that a written report on your respective roles and achievements during the year is required for the AGPU report.

Reports will be marked out of 27, and given points for creative use of statistics and novel excuses, so don't let the fact that you have been piss weak and lax in the execution of your duties all year hold you back now. Get busy...

...or your On Sex of The Poisoned Pen will write it for you, and like all the trashes this year, it will contain.....

THE COMPLETE & UNADULTERATED TRUTH !
